江戸切り子 Edo-kiriko

Cutting Edge

The clear colors and delicate patterns of Edo-kiriko cut glass date back to 1834 and reflect the quality craftsmanship nurtured in Edo, the former name of Tokyo. Encouraged by the government to further develop this craft, the Shinagawa Glass Factory invited an English engineer, Emmanuel Hauptmann, with expertise in modern glass-cutting techniques, to pass on his knowledge to Japanese trainees in 1881. The resulting elegant, clean designs have made Edo-kiriko world-renowned, and it is still an important and well-respected traditional Japanese art form today. Cocktails and sake in our Aurora Sky Lounge—which just opened in December—are served in Edo-kiriko cut-glass ware, as we welcome guests to experience genuine Japanese hospitality.

KEIO PLAZA HOTEL SAPPORO NEWS

2017 Snow Festival

—from Monday, February 6
to Sunday, February 12

One of Japan's most popular winter events takes place annually in Hokkaido's capital, Sapporo. The main site is centrally located in Odori Park, featuring large ice and snow sculptures, some measuring more than 25m by 15m, that are lit up at night. One-hundred ice sculptures can be viewed until 23:00 in Sapporo's largest entertainment district, Susukino. The Tsudome site is designed for families, with slides, snow rafting and more snow sculptures.

Premier Grand

Follow your dreams and create a memorable stay on the ultimate luxury club floors, our Premier Grand.

Come and indulge yourself in the Premier Grand experience.

Imagine checking in while sitting down on a sofa, with a drink in your hand, and looking out over the expansive cityscape of Tokyo from the 45th floor. You are then escorted to your Premier Grand Club Room, or to the Premier Grand Suites, all located on the upper floors. Once inside your premier accommodations, you are welcomed by Sealy beds, graced with Antonietti linen, and a fully stocked minibar. Stepping into the bathroom, you are greeted by L'Occitane's Jasmin & Bergamote bath products and Imabari towels — the ultimate in luxury and sophistication awaits you.

A dedicated concierge is always on hand in the Club Lounge to fully assist you. With so many activities that you could do during your stay, your concierge can help plan your days — from arranging a Tokyo sightseeing itinerary that meets your limited timeframe, or planning the ideal dining experience, to selecting one of the hotel's 40 relaxation options, or any other personal arrangements you require.

"We offer service that warms the hearts of our customers," says Concierge Zhao. "Whatever you need, we can provide. Feel free to ask us anything."

SKY * LOUNGE AURORA Main Tower 45F

Night and Day

Day or night, our Aurora Sky Lounge on the 45th floor offers the ideal atmosphere, whether you are looking for a place to relax, a romantic table for two, a location to talk in a small group, or a reception area with a bar and counter. What all of these have in common is a panoramic view of Tokyo's dynamic cityscape, Keio Plaza's renowned bartenders and chefs, and a wide range of tantalizing drinks and delicious cuisine from the afternoon into the late evening — every day of the week. There is even afternoon tea served in this beautifully renovated space.

Whether you would just like to have some down time, or want the perfect place to propose to that special someone, what better setting than having the lights of Tokyo as your backdrop?

Time flies on the 45th floor as you bring together your close friends for a lively reunion. The Aurora Sky Lounge is also available for larger gatherings, whether for a product launch by your business, or a reception with your wedding guests.

Come savor all that Aurora has to offer, in an invitingly new setting with a spectacular view, and four distinct spaces to fulfill your needs for any occasion — night and day.
