The rich heritage of Japanese culture — highly regarded all over the world — can be experienced first-hand at the Keio Plaza Hotel Tokyo. We invite you to take part in all the cultural experiences we have on offer.

Experience the best of traditional Japanese culture

Ikebana workshops let you be the artist

Ikebana is the delicate art of Japanese flower arrangement. We are pleased to announce that we are now offering special 45-minute ikebana workshops to our overseas guests, as well as visitors to the hotel, where you can create your own masterpiece. Renowned ikebana artist Hiroki Maeno — known for the beauty and scale of his arrangements — will provide instruction for the workshops, as well as insights into flower arrangement. These workshops, designed for small groups, will be held on the second and fourth Thursdays of the month, starting at 4:30 p.m., in a private room in the hotel.

Four times a year, a special ikebana performance and exhibition hosted by Keio Plaza Hotel Tokyo features flower arrangements by Maeno — some as tall as five meters.

Dress yourself in traditional kimono

We offer the unique experience to try on Japanese wedding kimono, usually only worn by brides holding a traditional ceremony in Japan. It is an experience that is certain to make your stay even more memorable. Guests are fitted and then can be photographed, with their own cameras, in the lobby and at two other locations chosen from among four spots inside the hotel. This special opportunity is only available on weekdays, for one hour between 10:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m.

For an additional fee, you can get your hair and makeup done by a professional at our beauty studio, or

Take your tea in ancient Japanese style

Staying guests and visitors to the hotel can take refuge from the bustle of downtown Tokyo in the tranquil atmosphere of our traditional tea ceremony room, Sho-fu-an, on the 10th floor of the Main Tower. Learn the art and ritual of Japanese tea ceremony through one of our regular demonstrations. Four 30-minute sessions are held every day, except Thursdays and Sundays, with space for up to four people each session. Japanese tea and sweets are included.

Hear the striking sounds of koto

Every Thursday and Sunday, concerts are held in the 3rd floor Lobby, featuring Miwa Naito, an award-winning koto player from the Romanian Music Society in Japan. The 20-minute performances start at 1:30 p.m., 2:00 p.m., 3:00 p.m. and 3:30 p.m.

Yesterday's legends and tomorrow's superstars

The fourth Sports Photography Exhibition at the Keio Plaza Hotel Tokyo offers a unique variety of images featuring Japan's legends and tomorrow's superstars. The 40 photographs by professional cameramen from The Mainichi Newspapers Co., Ltd. and The Sports Nippon Newspapers Co., Ltd., on display around the hotel from September 1 to October 31, capture the defining moments when history was made and generations of athletes and fans were inspired.

Images featured this year place accomplished millennials alongside proven veterans.

The Mainichi Newspapers Co., Ltd. and The Sports Nippon Newspapers Co., Ltd. are co-hosting with the Keio Plaza Hotel Tokyo. And the exhibition is co-sponsored by ITO EN, Ltd.
