

A NEW YEAR UNLIKE ANY OTHER

Kabuki brings a little luck for the New Year

It is a tradition for Kabuki performances to be staged during the New Year period, so we will be displaying Kabuki attire — with designs tailored for the New Year and considered to be lucky — in our Art Lobby. By simply looking at each kimono, you can determine the actor's role, as well as the season the play is set in and its mood.

During this exhibition, we will also be putting on a Kabuki performance in the 3F lobby, together with classical Japanese songs known as naga-uta. Join us for this unique cultural experience on January 25 at 5:00 p.m.

New Year is the most important holiday of the year for Japanese people, a time to be thankful for the year past and to wish for good fortune and happiness in the year to come. To demonstrate the essence of New Year in Japan, between December 26, 2018 and January 28, 2019, we will be holding an exhibition called "Vivid Performing Art of Kabuki and Mt. Fuji Art Exhibition – Celebrating New Year", which will focus on Kabuki and Mt. Fuji, two distinctly Japanese cultural artefacts given special attention at this time of year.

Hokusai Katsushika

A mountain of good fortune

As well as being among the most recognized symbols of Japan, Mt. Fuji has a special place in the Japanese concept of the New Year — many climb the mountain on New Year's Eve to see the first sunrise of the year. It is also considered to be a symbol of good fortune, and it is said that those whose first dream of the year features Mt. Fuji, a hawk, an eggplant or any combination of the three will be blessed with good luck.

We will therefore be exhibiting a range of both Japanese and Western art, including silk screens and lithographs, featuring Mt. Fuji. These works will be placed in three different areas of the hotel, on the 2nd and 3rd floors, for you to discover.

To give you a real taste of the season, our restaurants will be offering special dishes of food traditionally served at New Year in Japan.

KEIO PLAZA HOTEL

OF TOKYO'S
VIBRANT NIGHTLIFE

Make the most of the long winter nights

Tokyo is one of the busiest and most exciting cities in the world. For both those who are visiting and those who live here, it's always nice to balance the packed schedule of the day with an evening of fun and relaxation. Japan's capital offers a rich and varied nightlife, and where better to start your night than at Keio Plaza Hotel Tokyo?

A brilliant experience

Designed by renowned industrial architect Riki Watanabe in 1980, our signature bar Brilliant has a comfortable, warm atmosphere. The bar's high ceiling is fitted with lights reminiscent of stars in the night sky, and its distinctive red brick walls — using unglazed bricks imported from Scotland — are known affectionately as “the smiling bricks”. Brilliant's luxurious, high-backed chairs embrace you and give you a degree of privacy from patrons at other tables.

Beyond its comfort and pleasant ambiance, Brilliant also has an extraordinary selection of more than 200 liquors from around the world. Our award-winning bartenders are always ready to mix you an original cocktail, serve you a glass of whiskey, or pour you a beer to help you relax and unwind. It's the perfect environment to catch up with friends or toast an accomplishment with colleagues.

Sing your heart out

Japan is famous for its love of karaoke, and visitors to Tokyo from all over the world have enjoyed letting loose and singing their hearts out to classic tunes and new hits. Since 1995, we have enjoyed being able to give this pleasure to our guests at Karaoke47, Tokyo's first in-hotel karaoke rooms.

We have four rooms in total: two that accommodate groups of up to eight people, and two that accommodate groups of up to 12. Located on Keio Plaza Hotel Tokyo's 47th floor, Karaoke47 provides guests with excellent views of Tokyo's skyline while they sing renditions of their favorite songs.

As well as being a great place to sing and be with friends or coworkers, Karaoke47 is also a good spot to sit back and relax. We offer beer, whiskeys, and soft drinks to help loosen you up, or sooth any raw throats.

Prime location

Located in the heart of the bustling Tokyo district of Shinjuku, Keio Plaza Hotel is a short walk away from countless places to eat, drink, and be entertained.

NINJA SHINJUKU is certain to be a highlight of your time in Tokyo. While relaxing in a private Japanese-style room, enjoy a lunch or dinner course that features Omi beef dishes of the highest quality. It also has an à la carte menu, as well as “ninja sake” at the tatami bar counter.

You will be treated to entertaining presentations of food, such as dishes on fire or with smoke billowing from them. And don't miss the opportunity to witness “ninja magic” — the restaurant's master magicians will stun you with their tricks!

Kento's Shinjuku is a great place to enjoy dinner and drinks along with energetic live music performances.

When staying in a new city, you might be nervous about getting lost and not being able to make your way back to the hotel. Fortunately, you can easily find your way to Keio Plaza Hotel from Shinjuku Station using the brightly illuminated Plaza Street — lit up in spectacular color at night — with signs welcoming guests from around the world. Enjoy a worry-free evening out on the town at the center of Tokyo's nightlife.

CLUB FLOOR Premier Grand

OUR PREMIER SERVICES

Premier Nights

The best start to the night

With an excellent selection of high-quality drinks, bar time at the Premier Grand Club Lounge, from 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m., is the best way to start an evening. With a glass of sparkling sake, Japanese whiskey, wine, or another drink in hand, sit back and enjoy the lounge's warm and peaceful atmosphere while looking across the Tokyo skyline, 160 meters above the city.

Some good news

On December 15, we are proud to be unveiling a great new place for you to come home to: 56 newly renovated Premier Grand guest rooms on the 35th and 36th floors of the hotel. These rooms come furnished with wider beds, perfect both for families and those who want some more space to rest after a great night out.
